

Eliza™

ULTRALITE

Introducing one of the lightest weight women's kayaks on the market! The new composite Eliza combines a perfect fit with a sleek, lightweight design – ideal for small to medium paddlers looking for a user-friendly, performance kayak. The Eliza has been specifically engineered for a female paddler. This kayak is designed to maximize hull speed and efficiency while reducing drag at paddling speeds up to 3-4 knots (or an average recreational cruising speed). The Eliza is not only fun to paddle, getting it to the water is a breeze.

FEATURES

- Extremely lightweight – just over 40 lbs.
- Ergonomically designed cockpit geared for a small to medium female frame
- The Eliza cockpit is wide at the hips but shorter in length, allowing for easier spray deck installation and removal.
- The 15' length hull provides optimum efficiency at cruising speed.
- Shallow V hull is very reactive to slight edging, yet provides an excellent balance between tracking and maneuverability.
- Low windage and water shedding fore deck combined with a low rear deck allow a small to medium torso to have unrestricted, spirited paddling
- Bow and stern Valley™ hatches with bulkheads
- Molded-in composite thigh braces
- Necky touring seat with back band
- Retractable skeg with Necky Kayak's own "kink free" Necky Wire™
- Reflective deck rigging
